

For The Love of Creation Ministries

Organizational Policies

Donor Privacy Policy

For The Love of Creation Ministries values the privacy of every donor and supporter. We do not sell, trade, or share donor personal information with third parties, except as required by law or necessary to process donations securely. Donor information is used solely for internal recordkeeping, receipting, communication, and stewardship purposes.

Refund Policy

All donations made to For The Love of Creation Ministries are considered charitable contributions and are generally non-refundable. Refund requests due to error or duplicate transactions may be submitted within 14 days of the donation date and will be reviewed on a case-by-case basis.

To request assistance regarding a donation, please contact us at: info@ftlocm.org

Financial Accountability Statement

For The Love of Creation Ministries is committed to stewarding every financial gift with integrity, transparency, and biblical accountability. Funds are managed responsibly and used to support the mission, programs, outreach efforts, and operational needs of the ministry in accordance with donor intent when designated.

Non-Discrimination Statement

For The Love of Creation Ministries serves individuals and communities without discrimination based on race, ethnicity, nationality, age, gender, disability, or socioeconomic status, while remaining faithful to our Christian mission and values.

Conflict of Interest Policy

Leaders, board members, staff, and volunteers of For The Love of Creation Ministries are expected to act in the best interest of the organization and avoid situations in which personal interests conflict, or appear to conflict, with the ministry's mission or operations.

Any potential conflict of interest must be disclosed promptly to organizational leadership for review and appropriate action.
